

MARTIN HABETS

martin.habets@eui.eu

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Primary Field: Environmental Economics
Interests: Applied Micro, Gender, Development

WORK IN PROGRESS

Temperature Variation and Domestic Violence
Role of Siblings in Gender Norms Formation (with Libertad González)

EDUCATION

PhD in Economics European University Institute (Florence) Advisors: Alessandro Tarozzi and Thomas Crossley	2020 – Present
Master in Economics College of Europe (Bruges) Research project with Andrés Rodríguez-Pose	2018 – 2019
Bachelor and Master in Economics University of Liege (Belgium) Exchanges in Seoul and Bogota	2013 – 2018

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Theory and Practice of Causal Inference EUI, PhD level Teaching Assistant to Fabrizia Mealli	Fall 2023
Topics in Microeconometrics EUI, PhD level Teaching Assistant to Alessandro Tarozzi	Spring 2023 & 2024

WORK EXPERIENCE

European Commission, Brussels Blue Book trainee at DG ECFIN	Oct 2019 – Mar 2020
Belgian Ministry of Finances, Brussels, Belgium Intern at the Treasury	Apr 2018 - Jun 2018
Embassy of Belgium, Santiago, Chile Intern	Jan 2017 – Feb 2017

GRANTS AND AWARDS

EUI fourth year grant
F.R.S.-FNRS EUI Doctoral Grant
Full scholarship awarded by Ageas for the College of Europe
Erasmus+ Grant for visiting Universidad Nacional de Colombia (Bogota)
Erasmus+ Grant for visiting Kyung Hee University (Seoul)

SKILLS

Languages: French (Native), English (fluent), Spanish (fluent), Italian, Dutch, German (intermediate)
Programming: R, Stata, Python
Document Creation: Quarto, LaTeX

REFERENCES

Alessandro Tarozzi: : European University Institute | alessandro.tarozzi@upf.edu
Thomas Crossley: University of Michigan | tfcross@umich.edu